SOUTHERN SPAIN BY LUXURY TRAIN · 2027 SEASON

Al Ándalus

Andalusia & Extremadura by luxury train

Seven days between Seville and Madrid, aboard a Belle Époque train built in the 1920s and 1930s.

7 DAYS · 6 NIGHTS

SEVILLE ⇄ MADRID

MONDAY DEPARTURES, MARCH TO SEPTEMBER 2027

WELCOME ABOARD

Al Ándalus

Al Ándalus travels between Seville and Madrid through Andalusia, Extremadura and Castile. The route takes in Jerez de la Frontera and Cádiz, Córdoba and its Mosque-Cathedral, Roman Mérida, medieval Cáceres, Toledo and the royal gardens of Aranjuez, with guided visits every day.

The train is one of the most beautiful in Europe: its lounge and dining cars were built between 1928 and 1930 and restored in the style of the Belle Époque. It stops at a station every night, so you sleep without movement.

Everything on the programme is included: your suite or room, all meals with wine, the guided excursions with entrance fees, the coach transfers and the entertainment on board.

THE ROUTE · SEVILLE TO MADRID, AND THE REVERSE

Seville → Jerez de la Frontera → Cádiz → Córdoba → Mérida → Cáceres → Torrijos → Toledo → Aranjuez → Madrid

The Madrid to Seville journey visits the same places in a different order. Toledo is a day visit; the train spends that night in Torrijos.

YOUR SUITE

Suites and rooms

Al Ándalus has two kinds of accommodation, both with a private bathroom: 20 Suite Deluxe and 12 Gran Clase rooms. By day the beds become a sofa or armchairs, so your suite is also a private sitting room.

20 ON BOARD · CARS 1–5

Suite Deluxe

About 8.3 m² · double bed 1.50 × 1.90 m, a sofa by day

12 ON BOARD · CARS 6–7

Gran Clase room

About 6.6 m² · two single beds, armchairs by day

In every suite

- Private bathroom with shower, hairdryer and toiletries
- Individually controlled air-conditioning
- Wardrobe, luggage rack, safe and minibar
- Large windows onto the Andalusian countryside
- Gran Clase rooms keep the size and feel of the original compartments
- The train is parked at a station every night

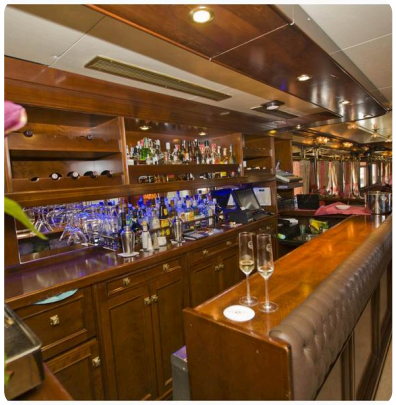

Suites and rooms are allocated by the crew. Single occupancy is available in both classes.

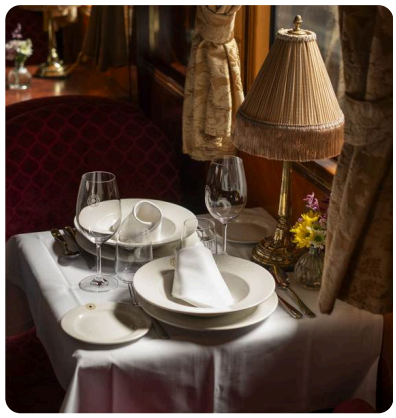

ON BOARD

Life on board

Four lounge cars built in 1928 and 1930 are the heart of the train: two restaurant cars, a bar car and a tea room, all restored with inlaid wood, brass lamps and velvet. They are open around the clock, with live music in the evenings.

Breakfast is a buffet on board. Lunch and dinner are served in the restaurant cars or in restaurants along the route, with Spanish wines, including sherry from Jerez, matched to each menu.

Wi-Fi works over the mobile network and is fairly stable on this route. There is no dress code; comfortable shoes are best for the daily visits, and the south can be hot in June and September.

DAY BY DAY · NORTHBOUND · 2027

Seville to Madrid

Starts Monday, mid-morning in Seville
Ends Sunday, after lunch in Madrid

Day 1 MON

Seville · Jerez de la Frontera

Night: Jerez

Guests are welcomed in Seville in the middle of the morning for an introduction to the Andalusian capital, followed by lunch. In the afternoon we board Al Ándalus, meet the crew over a welcome toast and settle into our suites as the train sets off for Jerez de la Frontera.

Day 2

Jerez de la Frontera

Night: Jerez

A full day in Jerez, home of the Andalusian horse. The programme combines guided visits to a traditional winery, the city's equestrian heritage and its historic centre with free time to explore at your own pace. Lunch and dinner are served on board.

Day 3

Jerez · Cádiz · Córdoba

Night: Córdoba

After breakfast we head to Cádiz on the Atlantic coast, one of the oldest cities in Western Europe, for a morning in its historic centre. Lunch is served on board as the train continues to Córdoba, where the afternoon is free. Dinner in a local restaurant.

Day 4

Córdoba · Mérida

Night: Mérida

The morning is devoted to Córdoba: its celebrated Mosque-Cathedral and the lanes of the historic centre, a World Heritage Site. Lunch is served on board as we cross into Extremadura, arriving in Mérida for an afternoon among the remains of the Roman city founded in 25 BC.

Day 5

Mérida · Cáceres · Torrijos

Night: Torrijos (on board)

The train reaches Cáceres while we have breakfast. We explore its remarkably preserved medieval old town, a World Heritage Site, with time to taste local produce and wander at leisure. The train then continues to Torrijos, in the province of Toledo. Dinner on board.

Day 6

Torrijos · Toledo · Aranjuez

Night: On board, towards Madrid

Today we visit Toledo, the former imperial city, whose streets, viewpoints and monuments reflect centuries of Christian, Muslim and Jewish heritage. After lunch we continue to Aranjuez to stroll through the grounds and gardens of its Royal Palace, a World Heritage Site. Dinner on board.

Day 7

Aranjuez · Madrid

The train arrives in Madrid during our last breakfast on board. After a final round of visits in the capital, we say goodbye over a farewell gala lunch, where the journey ends.

Visits follow the 2027 programme. Individual visits are occasionally changed or replaced on the day because of scheduling, road conditions or weather, and the crew confirms each day's plan on board.

DAY BY DAY · SOUTHBOUND · 2027

Madrid to Seville

Starts Monday in Madrid
Ends Sunday morning in Seville

Day 1 MON

Madrid · Aranjuez · Torrijos

Night: Torrijos (on board)

Guests are welcomed in Madrid for an introduction to the capital and lunch. We then travel to Aranjuez to board Al Ándalus, where the crew greets us with a welcome toast, and visit the Royal Palace of Aranjuez and its gardens, a World Heritage Site. The train then sets off for Torrijos. Dinner on board.

Day 2

Torrijos · Toledo · Cáceres

Night: Cáceres

After breakfast we visit Toledo, the former imperial city and a World Heritage Site shaped by Christian, Muslim and Jewish cultures. Lunch in the city and some free time, then the train carries us west into Extremadura to Cáceres.

Day 3

Cáceres · Mérida

Night: Mérida

A morning in Cáceres, whose walled medieval old town is one of the best preserved in Spain. The train then takes us on to Mérida to explore the monuments of the Roman city founded in 25 BC. Dinner in a local restaurant.

Day 4

Mérida · Jerez de la Frontera

Night: Jerez

Today the train heads south into Andalusia, arriving in Jerez de la Frontera, a city known for its wineries, its Andalusian horses and flamenco. Time to discover the city, with some free time, then dinner on board.

Day 5

Jerez · Cádiz · Córdoba

Night: Córdoba (on board)

After breakfast we visit Cádiz, the ancient port city on the Atlantic. Lunch is served near El Puerto de Santa María, after which we return to Jerez and the train continues to Córdoba. Dinner on board.

Day 6

Córdoba

Night: Córdoba

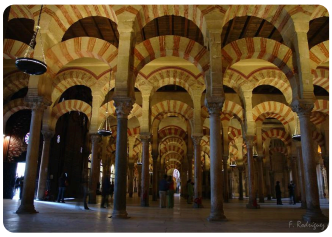

A full day in Córdoba, once the capital of the Caliphate of Al-Andalus. A guided tour takes in the Mosque-Cathedral and the historic centre, a World Heritage Site, with lunch in a local restaurant.

Day 7

Córdoba · Seville

The train travels to Seville while we enjoy our final breakfast on board. On arrival we say farewell to the train and its crew, and the journey ends.

Visits follow the 2027 programme. Individual visits are occasionally changed or replaced on the day because of scheduling, road conditions or weather, and the crew confirms each day's plan on board.

A 5% administrative fee is charged by Palace Tours against any refund. All cancellation and administrative fees apply to the full tour price before coupons.

Cancellations and changes must be sent in writing to travel@palacetours.com and take effect once we have processed them. Timeframes follow local time and business days at the destination.

Changes of date, occupancy or name within the same season may be possible up to 120 days before departure, subject to availability; none are permitted within 65 days.

The terms on your booking form are the ones that apply to your booking.

We strongly recommend travel insurance: www.palacetours.com/insurance

Good to know

Arriving

We suggest arriving in Seville or Madrid at least one day early. Your travel voucher gives the exact meeting point.

Accessibility

Boarding involves steps, corridors on historic trains are narrow and the daily visits include walking. Please talk to us before booking if mobility is a concern.

Usual visits

A horse show in Jerez and flamenco are usually part of the programme, though they may be changed or cancelled for scheduling reasons.

On-board payments

Extras on board can be paid in euros or by major credit card. Electricity is 220 V.

Travel documents

Your passport should be valid for at least six months after you leave Spain. Check visa rules for your nationality.
